PIL seeking Hyderabad as common capital dismissed

A Division Bench of the Andhra Pradesh High Court led by Chief Justice Dhiraj Singh Thakur dismissed a PIL filed by Narapareddy Kiran Kumar Reddy, a social worker from Nellore district, seeking directions to the Central government to declare Hyderabad as the common capital of A.P. and Telangana till 2034. The court said the matter was beyond its purview, hence it could not decide on the petition, saying that directing Parliament to make or amend the laws was not within its powers.

Teppotsavams in Tirumala Venkateswara temple begins

The five-day annual Teppotsavams (float festival) began at the temple of Lord Venkateswara in Andhra Pradesh's Tirumala on Wednesday. The idols of Lord Sri Rama along with those of Lakshmana, Sita and Hanuman were mounted atop the two-tier flotilla and dipped thrice in the waters of pushkarini (temple tank). Thousands of devotees, who gathered on the steps of the temple tank, offered haratis from their respective places. The Tirumala Tirupati Devasthanams (TTD) has also arranged for Sahasra Deepalankara Seva on all five days of the festival.

Mr. Satheesan said the Congress would seek legal action against the BJP leader if she did not withdraw the comment and apologise. "The Congress will petition the Election Commission," he said.

Higher Education Minister V. Sivankutty also echoed a similar sentiment. Communist Party of India State secretary Binov Viswam said Prime Minister Narendra Modi should intervene and rein in the offender. "Mr Modi, who never loses an opportunity to conduct a roadshow in Kerala, is morally bound to explain such divisive hate speech," Mr Viswam said.

Ms. Karandlaje had claimed, arguably without evidence, that Keralites living or visiting Karnataka were responsible for "acid attacks" on women. She also accused the people of Tamil Nadu of placing bombs in the State.

The Directorate of Enforcement (ED) has frozen bank balances and fixed deposits (FDs) worth ₹4.4 crore of Muhammed Hafiz of Chengala, Kasaragod, and a few others associated with him.

The investigation agency also seized gold jewellery weighing 1,672.8 grams, Indian currency worth ₹12.5 Lakh, seven mobile phones and various documents following searches conducted at nine locations across Kerala, Karnataka and Goa last week.

Search operations

The search operations were carried out under the provisions of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, 2002, according to a communication.

Incidentally, Abdul Lahir Hassan, Hafiz's fatherin-law, had filed a police complaint against him in 2022 for duping him of ₹92 crore.

Mr. Hassan claimed that his son-in-law swindled the money by emotionally blackmailing his daughter, seeking more dowry.

The money was swindled from July 2018 to March 2022.

Crime Branch

Recently, the Crime Branch had taken over the investigation in the case after Mr. Hassan took up his complaint with Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan.

Mr. Hassan, who hails from Aluva, is running a few educational institutions and a construction business in the UAE.

Chief Minister and DMK president M.K. Stalin on Wednesday released a list of 21 party candidates, including three women, for the Lok Sabha election. The list features 10 incumbents and 11 new faces.

Leader of the DMK Parliamentary Party in the Lok Sabha and party treasurer T.R. Baalu will contest again from Sriperumbudur, while party deputy general secretaries Kanimozhi Karunanidhi and A. Raja will re-enter the fray from Thoothukudi and the Nilgiris (SC), respectively.

The party renominated the incumbents from all three Lok Sabha constituencies in Chennai - Kalanidhi Veerasamy (Chennai North), Dayanidhi Maran (Chennai Central), and Thamizhachi Thangapandian (Chennai South). The other incumbents on the list include S. Jagathrakshakan from Arakkonam, D.M. Kathir Anand from Vellore, K. Selvam from Kancheepuram (SC), and C.N. Annadurai from Tiruvannamalai.

Making a pitch: Chief Minister and DMK president M.K. Stalin and other leaders releasing the party's manifesto and list of candidates in Chennai on Wednesday. ANI

A notable incumbent who did not figure on the list this time is Gautham Sigamani (Kallakurichi), son of former Higher Education Minister K. Ponmudy. Another significant incumbent who is missing from the list is S.S. Palanimanickam, who won the Thanjavur seat six times. In Salem, the party has fielded T.M. Selvaganapathy, a heavyweight and a former AIADMK Minister who joined the DMK in 2008. He was also a DMK Rajya Sabha member, but was disqualified following his conviction in a corruption case. However, last November, the Madras High Court set aside his conviction, facilitating his return to electoral politics. Thanga Thamizhselvan, a former AIADMK and AMMK man, who unsuccessfully fought against former Deputy Chief Minister O. Panneerselvam in the last Assembly election, will contest from Theni.

Other candidates include A. Mani from Dharmapuri, who replaces the popular S. Senthilkumar; M.S. Dharanivendhan from Arani; Malaiyarasan from Kallakurichi; K.E. Prakash from Erode; Ganapathy P. Rajkumar from Coimbatore; K. Eswarasamy from Pollachi; K.N. Arun Nehru from Perambalur; S. Murasoli from Thanjavur; and Rani Srikumar from Tenkasi (SC).

AIADMK general secretary Edappadi K. Palaniswami on Wednesday announced that his party had roped in the DMDK, the Puthiya Tamizhagam (PT), the Social Democratic Party of India (SDPI), the Puratchi Bharatham and the All India Forward Bloc (AIFB), Releasing the first list of candidates, he told reporters that many smaller organisations, too, had expressed support to the AIADMK. The DMDK was allotted five seats - Tiruvallur, Central Chennai; Cuddalore; Thanjavur; and Virudhunagar.
