

Ground reality should be connected to readers

Discussion organised on literature and journalism by Hemant Muktibodh, Mahesh Srivastava, Umesh Trivedi

Chronicle Reporter, Bhopal
At the launch ceremony of Ash-tachhap Ke Awarwacin Kavi, a collection of poems by eight journal-ist-poets published under the editor-ship of Pankaj Pathak, the speak-ers expressed the opinion that to-day the greatest need is to connect the ground reality of society to readers through books, as is hap-pening in Nayi Kavita.
This is extremely needed in all forms of literature. Journalists who are writing poetry while perform-ing the duty of journalism can convey this message in a more effective manner. This essence of literature and journalism was presented by senior social worker and intellectu-al analyst Hemant Muktibodh and senior journalists Mahesh Srivasta-va and Umesh Trivedi. First of all, the poetry collection was launched. The eight poets included in it are Shilpa Sharma, Umesh Trivedi, Pankaj Pathak, Ajay Bokil, Kaushal Kishore Chaturvedi, Arif Mirza, Dr. Vandana Shukla and Aarti Sharma. The launch ceremony was orga-nized by Hum Vikram at Dushyant Museum.

Chief guest Muktibodh, who has a deep involvement in literature and especially poetry, discussed the topic in detail. He also analyzed the poems of the collection.

Paryushan Parv: Worship of Uttam Shaucha Dharma on 4th day

Bhopal: In the 10-day Paryushan festival, devotees are immersed in the worship of 10 religions with the practice of penance, sacrifice and restraint.
Nirvana Laddoos were offered by worshipping Shri 1008 Pushpadant Bhagwan on his salvation with Nitya Niyam Abhishek, Shantidhara.
Uttam Shaucha Dharma was wor-shipped with Shanti Dhara at Station Bajariya Mahavir Jinalaya with the wish of peace in the whole world.
The importance of Shaucha Dhar-ma was explained by Shastri Samagra Bhaiya. One should not be greedy, more dangerous than anger, ego and deceit is the greedy, covetous nature of a living being which inspires five sins in the form of violence, lies, theft, bad conduct and possession.

Purity of a living being comes from the effect of modesty, penance, knowl-edge, meditation and satisfaction. A man can attain virtues by following Shaucha Dharma.
President Rajiv Panchratna, spokesperson Narendra Jain, Chetan Jain, Sanjay Jain, Pratik Jain, Ankit Jain, Gaurav Jain participated. Grand aarti and cultural programs are being organized every evening.

Accused who stole mobile from counter arrested

Mobile worth Rs 1.30 lakh recovered from the miscreant

Bhopal: The police has ar-rested the accused who stole a mobile worth Rs 1.30 lakh by putting his hand in the counter of a shop located in Hanu-manganj. More than a dozen serious crimes are already registered against the arrested accused. Ac-cording to the informa-tion, Kamal Ahirwar (42) lives in Shankar Nagar Barkheda Pathani Govind-pura and runs a mobile re-pair shop. On August 17 last month, he had reached his friend's shop in Chaitanya Market to buy goods. During this time, he took out his Sam-sung company's S-24 Ultra Grey color mobile phone from his pocket and kept it on the counter of the shop. After some time, when he started working, an unknown per-son put his hand in the counter and stole his mo-bile worth Rs 1.30 lakh.
The suspicious youth was captured in the CCTV camera, on the basis of which the police was searching for the miscreant. On Tuesday, informa-tion was received from an informer that a boy is standing in front of railway station platform number-6 and is trying to sell expensive mobile phones at cheap rates. When the police took him into custody and ques-tioned him, he told his name as Pradeep Yadav (24) resident of Mahavir-pura police station Ja-hangirabad, present ad-dress opposite Mandi Gate police station Chola-mandir. After searching, a Samsung mobile was re-covered from him. Police said that about a dozen crimes including murder, attempt to murder and Arms Act are already regis-tered against the accused.

Woman's purse, passengers' mobile phones stolen
A woman's purse travel-ing in Amarkantak Ex-press was stolen. The purse contained goods worth thousands of ru-pees including mobile phone and cash. GRP has registered a case against unknown thieves.
Meanwhile, Pankaj Singh, a resident of Satna, was travelling from Rewa
