BJP: Khara flouted law, applied fraudulently for new EPIC

New Delhi: BJP Thursday accused Congress leader Pawan Khara of "purposely" seeking a fresh EPIC number while retaining his earlier one — effectively keeping two votes — a blatant violation of election law. "So, Rahul Gandhi's close aide Pawan Khara's own lawyer admits that he filed Form 6 to get a new EPIC number. This is a blatant fraud Rahul Gandhi tried to peddle in his fake 'Vote Chori' presentation," Amit Malviya said on X. Malviya alleged the Congress spokesperson had "fraudulently" applied for a fresh EPIC instead of merely updating his address. Malviya linked the issue to Congress's broader campaign against ECI, calling Khara "the man shouting the loudest about vote theft while himself guilty of malpractice". He further alleged that the "Congress ecosystem is filled with such Vote Choris," claiming that even Sonia Gandhi had been listed twice as a voter before actually acquiring Indian citizenship. Khara is meant only for new voters who have never registered before. Form 6 is the correct form for change of address or shifting of constituency. This is exactly the fraud Rahul Gandhi tried to peddle in his fake 'Vote Chori' presentation, Amit Malviya said on X.

Rahul breaking security norms while traveling abroad: CRPF

CRPF's VIP security wing head Sunil Joon complained about what he termed as the Rae Bareilly MP's casual or lackadaisical approach in matters relating to his security. CRPF's letter to Congress's letter to the Congress leadership alleging security protocol violations by Rahul Gandhi, the party Thursday questioned the timing of the letter as it called it a "veiled attempt to intimidate the Gandhi family with a link to his disclosures about 'vote chori' and upcoming elections. Congress spokesman Pawan Khara said, "The timing of the CRPF's letter and its instant public release raise disturbing questions. It comes just as Rahul Gandhi is leading the charge against BJP's 'vote chori' carried out with Election Commission's complicity. This is a veiled attempt to intimidate the leader of opposition, who has already announced an imminent disclosure." He is the govt rattled by the truth he is about to reveal? After making the revelations about "fake voters" in Mahadevapur assembly in Bengaluru, Rahul has announced that he will soon bring out a "hydrogen bomb" about voters list in Haryana that Congress lost to BJP.
