Tin shed encroachments in Gujari Bazar removed Paratwada 20 February: The encroachment removal team of the municipal council in the Gujari Bazar area of Paratwada town carried out an encroachment action recently. They removed the fruit market and tin sheds erected outside the shops on the road. Duetothis decisive action, it has been possible to control the encroachments that were obstructing traffic in the market area. Encroachments have been removed from Gujri Bazar to Mishra Line road stretch on Betul Road and elsewhere in the town. The municipal council team carried out this action under the protection of the security personnel dispatched by Sarmaspura Paratwada PI and fellow police officials. Some traders opposed the removal of encroachments, but administration took a firm stance and completed the action. This campaign was carried out under the guidance of the Administrator and Chief Officer of the Municipal Council, Dhiraj Gohad. PWD Engineer Arvind Gotwal, Kitukle and employees of the taxation department and other officers were also present on the occasion. Many traders in the Gujri Bazar area were encroaching upon the footpaths and main roads and doing business. Due to this, besides obstructing traffic, were also facing citizens difficulty in walking. administration took strict action repeated receiving complaints in this regard. The municipal council authorities remove did encroachments despite giving prior notice to the traders, so action was taken to remove the constructions unauthorised and tin sheds on government land. The administration has clearly warned that strict action will be taken if unauthorised constructions are found again after the encroachments have been removed. encroachments are found in public places, one will have to face penal action. Due to this campaign by the municipal council, Gujri Bazaar locality has become free and traffic has come to a great relief. The administration has appealed to the citizens and traders to cooperate and keep the town clean and encroachment-free.
